About the Candidate

Chipman “Chip” Flowers Jr., a “military brat,” first came to Delaware in 1987, flying with his family to and from overseas assignments via Dover Air Force Base. A resident of Middletown, Chip has taken on leadership roles in a range of Delaware civic organizations, primarily focusing on education, the arts, community service, and economic development.

Chip majored in economics at the University of Pennsylvania and received his law degree and a Master’s of Business Administration from Georgetown University. After earning his Master’s of Public Administration from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, Chip founded The Flowers Counsel Group, which specializes in advising Delaware businesses on contracts and major purchases. Prior to attending Harvard, Chip worked as a mergers and acquisitions attorney at the Wilmington office of Skadden Arps.

Chip was a member of the Delaware delegation to the 2004 Democratic National Convention. He is a former chairman of the Multicultural Lawyers and Judges Section of the Delaware State Bar Association and chief Democratic political analyst on WHYY-TV.

Chip brings to the campaign for state treasurer a fresh perspective on the financial challenges facing Delaware, particularly focusing on the areas of fiscal responsibility, economic development, revamping of state financial agencies, planning and forecasting, and stimulating businesses. As treasurer, Chip will develop financial solutions that will better the lives of all Delawareans.
