

About the Candidate

Chipman “Chip” Flowers founded the Flowers Counsel Group in Wilmington in 2006 after studying government at Harvard University. Prior to attending Harvard, Flowers worked as a mergers and acquisitions attorney at the Wilmington office of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP. The Flowers Counsel Group specializes in procurement law, advising businesses on contractual agreements or major purchases. Flowers’ clients include the DuPont Co., AstraZeneca Pharmaceuticals, Bank of America, Barclay’s Bank Delaware, ING Bank, FSB, the Buccini/Pollin Group and Harvard University.

Flowers first came to Delaware in 1987, at age 12 with his parents, a military family, who were stationed overseas, flying to and from Europe via Dover Air Force Base. He was attracted to the state and chose to settle in Delaware as an adult. He majored in economics at the University of Pennsylvania, received his law degree and a Master’s in Business Administration from Georgetown University and earned a Master’s in Public Administration from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard.

Flowers was a member of the Delaware delegation to the 2004 Democratic National Convention. He is a former chairman of the Multicultural Lawyers and Judges Section of the Delaware State Bar Association, chief Democratic political analyst on WHYY-TV, and a board member of numerous civic and cultural organizations.
